

Welsh Charities Week 2023 – Party pack

This year we're encouraging you to use #WelshCharitiesWeek as an excuse to get your staff and volunteers together to celebrate your charity or voluntary group.

WHY NOT...?

1. Call the team together to celebrate your successes and the difference you make
2. Organise a coffee morning or afternoon tea for your staff and volunteers
3. Invite your supporters or the local community to come and hear about your work and its impact

THINGS TO DO

Decorate your space

We've got a free Welsh Charities Week event pack you can order through the post (get them while stocks last!) including decorations and props, or you can print out some of the signs below. To apply for an event pack, please [email \[news@wcva.cymru\]\(mailto:news@wcva.cymru\)](mailto:news@wcva.cymru) by 3 November 2023 telling us:

1. The name of your organisation
2. A bit about what you are planning to do for your event (200 words max), and
3. Your address*

Say diolch / thank you to volunteers and staff

Tell them why their contribution to the work of the charity is so important and appreciated.

You could take a photo of the person and share your thank you message on social media using #WelshCharitiesWeek (please make sure you have the consent of everyone featured). We've got a thank you message below you could print off.

Ask people to share their stories about how the organisation is making a difference

What makes you proud to be a part of it? What have you achieved this year? What made you laugh, cry or smile?

This could simply be a great feel-good activity. You could also use it to sing loud and proud about what your organisation does: share quotes or video messages on social media using #WelshCharitiesWeek.

All information in this campaign pack is available in Welsh at wythnoselusennau.cymru.

*WCVA will record your address for the purposes of sending the event pack only. For more information about how we process your data please read our privacy notice.
